O R D E R

The Court, upon reconsideration of the motion for discretionary reduction of sentence pursuant to Rule 35, Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure, filed on behalf of the Defendant, Gerald LeRoy Prideaux, and supplement thereto, and the Court's Order dated and filed March 16, 1977, finds that the reduction of sentence should be sustained.

Therefore, the Judgment and Sentence entered herein on November 23, 1976, and on which execution was deferred to February 1, 1977, should be modified to the following:

The Defendant, Gerald LeRoy Prideaux, is hereby committed to the custody of the Attorney General or his authorized representative for imprisonment for a period of thirty-five (35) months, and on the condition that the defendant be confined in a jail-type institution for a period of two (2) months, the execution of the remainder of the sentence of imprisonment is hereby suspended and the defendant is placed on probation for a period of thirty three (33) months.

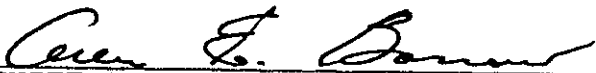

The Court further finds that it would be in the best interest of justice if the unserved jail time were served on weekends and the Defendant Gerald LeRoy Prideaux were free to work Monday through Friday to support his family. Therefore, the Defendant Gerald LeRoy Prideaux should be released from Tulsa County Jail at 12:00 o'clock noon Sunday, March 20, 1977, to commence service of his probationary term. It shall be a special condition of his probation that he serve the remaining eleven (11) days of his jail-type sentence on Saturdays and Sundays.

On this special condition of probation, the Defendant Gerald LeRoy Prideaux shall report to the United States Probation Office, then to the United States Marshal, at Tulsa, Oklahoma, at 4:00 o'clock p.m. Friday, March 25, 1977, for confinement in the Tulsa County Jail. The Defendant shall be released at 12:00 noon each Sunday, and report back at 4:00 p.m. each Friday, from March 20, 1977, through April 10, 1977. He shall so report at 4:00 o'clock p.m. Friday, April 15, 1977, and be released at 12:00 noon Saturday, April 16, 1977, on that date having completed service of the full period of jail-type custody required by the sentence as reduced herein.

Should the said Defendant fail to report on any Friday as required herein, the Court shall be promptly notified by the Probation Officer and the time remaining on the two month jail-type part of his sentence shall be served one day following the next in custody at the Tulsa County Jail until the full two months of the sentence has been completed, and the Court shall also consider whether a revocation of the 33 months probation is required.

IT IS SO ORDERED this 18th day of March, 1977, at Tulsa, Oklahoma.

ORDER MODIFYING
CONDITIONS OF PROBATION

On April 8, 1976, the defendant Danna Linn Cooper, having entered her plea of guilty to having violated Title 18 USC Sec. 656, as charged in Counts 1, 2 and 3 of the Indictment, came on for sentencing. The imposition of sentence in Counts 1, 2 and 3 were suspended; and the defendant was then placed on probation for a period of three years as to each count to run concurrently, pursuant to the Federal Youth Correction Act, Title 18 USC Sec. 5010(a). It was further adjudged by the Court that in addition to the usual conditions of probation, the defendant was to make restitution in the total amount of $784.65 at regular intervals, the amount of which were to be determined by the probation office after the defendant had obtained employment.

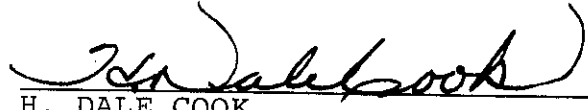

The Court has now been informed that the actual loss sustained by the Bank of Oklahoma pursuant to defendant's conduct which was the subject matter of the Indictment upon which plaintiff entered her plea of guilty was in fact $707.65, rather than the amount of $784.65 as previously reported.

It is therefore the Order of the Court that the special conditions of probation ordering restitution in the amount of $784.65 be and are hereby modified to an amount of restitution in the sum of $707.65, said amount to be paid at regular intervals, the amounts of which are to be determined by the probation office after the defendant has obtained employment.

It is so Ordered this 17th day of March, 1977.

NO. 76-CR-125-B

O R D E R

The Court has for consideration a motion for discretionary reduction of sentence pursuant to Rule 35, Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure, filed on behalf of the Defendant, Gerald LeRoy Prideaux, and supplement thereto, and a letter from the Defendant as well as his wife.

After review of these instruments, study of the file, and reflection, and being fully advised in the premises, the Court finds that the original sentence imposed was lenient and proper under the circumstances before the Court, and that the motion for modification should be denied except that it would be in the best interest of justice if the unserved jail time were served on weekends and the Defendant Gerald LeRoy Prideaux were free to work Monday through Friday to support his family. Therefore, the Defendant Gerald LeRoy Prideaux should be released from Tulsa County Jail at 4:00 o'clock p.m. Sunday, March 20, 1977, to commence service of his probationary term. It shall be a special condition of his probation that he serve the remaining 41 days of his jail-type sentence on Saturdays and Sundays.

On this special condition of probation, the Defendant Gerald LeRoy Prideaux shall report to the United States Probation Office, then to the United States Marshal, at Tulsa, Oklahoma, at 4:00 o'clock p.m. Friday, March 25, 1977, for confinement in the Tulsa County Jail. The Defendant shall be released at 4:00 p.m. each Sunday and report back at 4:00 p.m. each Friday, from March 20, 1977, through August 7, 1977. He shall again so report at 4:00 o'clock p.m. Friday, August 12, 1977, and be released at 4:00 p.m. Saturday, August 13, 1977, on that date having completed service of the full period of jail-type custody required by his sentence.

Should the said Defendant fail to report on any Friday as required herein, the Court shall be promptly notified by the Probation Officer and the time remaining on the three month jail type part of his sentence shall be served one day following the next in custody at the Tulsa County Jail until the full three months of the sentence has been completed, and the Court shall also consider whether a revocation of the 33 months probation is required.
